

THE GEORGIA DOTY HEALTH EDUCATION FUND & ASIAN HUMAN SERVICES

PRESENT

Together We Stand

HEPATITIS & HIV/AIDS AWARENESS DAY

May 19, 2006

4753 N. Broadway
1st Floor Conference Room
4 PM to 6 PM

JOIN US TO WELCOME:

Dr. Eric Whittaker,
Director IDPH

S.S. Shiva Singh Khalsa,
Minister of Sikh Dharma

POETRY READING BY Internationally acclaimed
Utdu language journalist and activist:

Ifti Nasim of Newsweekly Pakistan
Banyan Tree Essay Contest Winner

Immediately following the speakers, we will offer a
FREE SCREENING of award winning Korean film

“You Are My Sunshine”

“You Are My Sunshine” is the story of a sex worker who falls in love with an older bachelor from a rural area. Later the two discover that the woman is HIV-positive.

HIV TESTING
HEPATITIS TESTING AND IMMUNIZATIONS
STD SCREENINGS

The Banyan Tree Program

A program of
ASIAN HUMAN SERVICES

CO-SPONSORED BY

- AIDS Foundation of Chicago
- Asian Human Services
- Asians and Friends Chicago
- Cambodian Association of Illinois
- Chicago Department of Public Health
- Chinese American Service League
- Chinese Mutual Aid Association
- Cook County Health Department
- Georgia Doty Health Education Fund
- IDPH-Center for Minority Health Services
- Inde-American Center
- Korean American Community Services
- Korean Young Women's Community Assoc.
- Lao American Community Association
- Metropolitan Asian Family Services
- The Nat'l AIDS Treatment & Advocacy Project
- Sikh Dharma
- Vietnamese Association of Illinois